

Testimonials from clients using Alioth Breton Properties

These testimonials are taken from emails sent to us. We take our service to clients seriously and do our very best to ensure all transactions go through smoothly - buying property here is a life changing experience and needs professional care. If anyone doubts the authenticity of these emails we can put you in direct contact with the clients (with their permission). We have included them because its vital you know who you are dealing with in France when on the threshold of a buying decision - we are "more" than just estate agents.

“ We left England, drove overnight, arrived at a rendezvous with a relative stranger (Patrick Siberil) early on a Saturday morning at Carhaix Railway Station with two dogs and a cat on board. We risked all this on blind trust and it paid off. Without Patrick and Mike (Alioth Properties) we would not have survived the process of purchasing a French property and the period of basic integration into the Bretagne way of life. They managed to include in their services to us; house and land purchase, insurance, a rental property, opening a bank account, arranging a telephone, sorting out EDF, organising the purchase of extra land and being there every step of the way through to today; a year after our arrival. ”

Gary and Lesley Lacey - Plussullien

“ The service from Mike and Patrick at Alioth Properties is second to none, we have purchased two properties through them and all the procedures were dealt with in a highly professional and friendly manner from initial viewing right through to completion. They really out perform other agents with the way they do everything from assisting in setting up a bank account to connecting the phone line. They were even a great help recently when we had a minor problem with the house insurance over a year after the initial completion! Nothing is too much trouble for Alioth Properties and we can, and frequently do, recommend their services. ”

Colin Henshaw, Regional HSET Manager - Eastern Hemisphere, Kuwait

“ Buying or selling a house is a stressful time, but knowing you are dealing with a professional company like Alioth, who cover every aspect of moving house for you, you know that all you have to do is find the perfect house, and leave the rest to them. ”

Denise and Ray Derwent - St Nicolas du Pelem

“ I chose Alioth Properties to market my house last year and was very pleased with the professional and friendly service they provided. Patrick and Mike provided information and honest opinions about possible renovations to the potential buyers and at all times we were given rapid feedback. I would recommend Alioth Properties to anyone searching for a house or wishing to sell one. ”

Gill and Richard Ovens - Châteauneuf du Faou

“ Alioth - their tagline "more than just an agent" is so very true. From the moment we first met Patrick and Mike we have continually received a service that has been professional, efficient and very friendly. From electricity to broadband, they've been very helpful throughout. Our initial meeting with them was to be shown properties we had requested to see, they we're called "renovations" and it didn't take us long to find out they are called renovations for a reason! At that point we realised these 'renovations' were beyond us. This did not deter Mike or Patrick who, after we all stopped laughing, asked us some key questions to thoroughly understand what we were looking for and then took us straight to a small farmhouse a couple of miles out of town, which was simply perfect! The buying process in France is different to the UK. Alioth Properties helped us through every step of the purchasing cycle. They ensured we had a thorough understanding of the process, attended the Notaires office with us on completion, acted as a translator when needed and even came back to the house after completion to ensure we had electricity, water & house insurance. Mike and Patrick of Alioth Properties really do provide an excellent service and come thoroughly recommended by us. ”

Paul and Cathy Betts - London

“ Just a few words of gratitude for the help and support you and Patrick have given us since we first met. Having contacted several Agents in Brittany, Alioth stood head and shoulders above the rest. You took time to understand our requirements and found our dream home. Your help in guiding us through the purchasing process was truly excellent. Furthermore, your after sales service and support in helping us to settle in has been invaluable. ”

Steve and Kimberlee Banks - Trinite Langonnet

“ On initial contact with Alioth Properties we found them very friendly and extremely helpful giving confidence in their service. This was carried through to the purchase and has shown them to be both professional and helpful after the completion. No query was too much trouble. We would recommend their services to anyone with total confidence. ”

Ken & Mary Walker - Lanrivain

“ From first finding our property on the Alioth Property website, to viewing and subsequently purchasing, Alioth were very professional, efficient and friendly in all aspects, including providing contacts for surveys, insurance and banking facilities. ”

Graham and June Ramsden - Mellionnec

“ We bought a house through Alioth and found their service helpful and friendly, nothing was too much trouble for them. Patrick and Michael spent a great deal of time assisting us to find a property which suited our needs. We would have no hesitation in recommending their services to anyone and their aftercare has been second to none... Excellent. ”

Paul and Julie Collister - British Army, Cyprus

“ Michael and Patrick, thanks and appreciation for all that you have done for us when we were looking for our beautiful cottage and for all the after care which you have shown us since our purchase in January 2008. Our purchase went through without a hitch and you were there to translate for us and to see us through it all, something which I'm sure would have been quite fraught without you with us every step of the way. We will always be grateful for you for finding us the cottage, it is exactly what we wanted, in the perfect location, and while at the moment we are still living in the UK our dream when we finish the refurbishing is to live in France and hopefully to further our friendship with you and others that we've been fortunate enough to meet since travelling to and fro. Good luck to you both with your agency and to anyone who has the dream that we have, I can recommend they contact you both for your expertise and willingness to help in everything. ”
